

Catching Up with Maddie Reesor

I graduated with a Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting from University of Wisconsin-Madison this past May. My four years of college went by in a flash! I can't believe I'm a graduate. At school, I was involved and held leadership positions in both my sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, as well as the professional accounting fraternity Beta Alpha Psi. Both organizations helped build me into a strong woman and professional, and I will miss them dearly.

Looking forward to next year, I will head back to Madison in the fall to earn my Masters of Accountancy degree, a one-year program. I will also have the privilege of teaching Introduction to Accounting to incoming freshmen and sophomores.

After I graduate (again), I'll begin working full time as an auditor for Deloitte in Minneapolis. Summer plans include hopefully passing parts of the CPA exam, which involves a lot of studying-- and just as much caffeine. I feel so blessed to have the buoyant Trinity Community continue to support me as I grew up, and am looking forward to the future with hope, excitement, and anticipation. On Wisconsin!
