

Adult Forum Schedule

9|26 The Four Gospel Paths Part I: Questions on the Journey

Adult Forum opening session will introduce the overall vision, content and process of the Adult Faith Formation 2021-22 program year. Using material from Heart and Mind by Alexander John Shaia, four questions provide the focus of our gospel reading and interactions over the next nine months.

10|10 The Four Gospel Paths Part 2

A continuation of the overview of an approach to each gospel which brings insights and connects this time and our lives with Jesus's good news told in four unique ways.

10|17 The Gospel of Matthew Overview

Matthew's gospel begins the journey with Jesus's actions and words in answer to the first question: "How do we face change?" Through a video and group discussion, this session will encourage and give support for the first path.

10|24 The Gospel of Matthew: Hymnal Companions

Believing that Matthew's question is an ancient one, this session will offer hymn lyrics written over the ages suggesting musical answers to "How do we face change?"

10|31 No Adult Forum: Consecration Sunday

11|7 The Gospel of Matthew: Art Companions

This session taps the art world for images and color responses to the human effort to face change.

11|14 Insights on the Gospel of Matthew

Trinity members who formed a team for their journey of this first path will facilitate this session by offering individual insights gleaned from engaging this gospel.

11|21 Community Forum: Many Voices on Matthew's Gospel

As a new programmatic addition to Trinity's inter-generational ministry, members of all ages will be sharing their connections with Matthew's story of Jesus.

11|28 The Gospel of Mark Overview

The journey with Jesus's words and life answers the second question in Mark's gospel: "How do we move through suffering?" Through video and group discussion, this session will encourage and give support for the next path.

12|5 The Gospel of Mark: Hymn Companions

A focus on hymn lyrics written over the ages reveals answers to the question shaped in Mark's story of Jesus: "How do we move through suffering?"

12|12 The Gospel of Mark: Art Companions

Gathered from vast artistic examples, this session explores how various mediums convey each artist's reflection of how Mark responded to his community's movement through suffering.

12|19 Insights on the Gospel of Mark

Trinity members who formed a team on this path facilitate this session by offering individual insights gleaned from engaging Mark's gospel.

12|26 No Adult Forum

1|2 No Adult Forum

1|9 Community Forum: Many Voices on Mark's Gospel

Trinity members of all ages will be sharing their connections with Mark's story of Jesus.

1|16 The Gospel of John Overview

For John's community in the cosmopolitan city of Ephesus, the question is one of "How do we receive the joy?" Along with the apostle Paul's letters, John's gospel opens the richness and challenge of diversity, a spiritual task requiring patience and perspective.

1|23 No Adult Forum: Annual Meeting (Tentative Date)

1|30 The Gospel of John: Hymn Companions

This session will offer examples of hymns with answers to John's question, "How do we receive the joy?". The lyrics can bring new insights on embracing life's grace and abundance.

2|6 The Gospel of John: Art Companions

By viewing artists' work, notice fresh approaches to living out Jesus Christ's presence.

2|13 Insights on the Gospel of John

Trinity members who formed a team on this path facilitate this session by offering individual insights gleaned from engaging John's gospel.

2|20 Community Forum: Many Voices on John's Gospel

Trinity members of all ages will be sharing their connections with John's story of Jesus.

2|27 Mardi Gras Party

The whole congregation is invited to embody Jesus's gift of joy and new life in a last celebration before entering Lent.

3|6 The Gospel of Luke Overview

The journey with Jesus's words and life answers the fourth question in Luke's gospel: "How do we mature in service?" Through video and group discussion, this session will encourage and give support for the next cycle of steps.

3|13 The Gospel of Luke: Hymn Companions

Lifting lyrics from the music of some hymns will provide unique answers to the last question on the journey: "How we mature in service?"

3|20 The Gospel of Luke: Art Companions

Through art, this session discusses and explores John's gospel and how we mature in service.

3|27 Insights on the Gospel of Luke

Trinity members who formed a team on this path facilitate this session by offering individual insights gleaned from engaging Luke's gospel.

4|3 Community Forum: Many Voices on Luke's Gospel

Trinity members of all ages will be sharing their connections with Luke's story of Jesus.

4|10 No Adult Forum: Palm Sunday

4|17 No Adult Forum: Easter

4|24 Highlights of Four Path Journey 2021-22: Part I

In this session, members will share their insights and experiences as individuals. Like photographs in an album, we will take time to remember, savor, connect and celebrate how the Four Questions and Gospels guided us during this year.

5|1 Highlights of Four Path Journey 2021-22: Part II

This will be a continuation of the conversations among the group on how different questions and gospels spoke to them in the past year.

5|8 Highlights of Four Path Journey 2021-22: Part III

Now it's time to focus on the effects of the Four Gospel Path on Trinity as a congregation. The session will begin to explore possible stronger, even new, ministries with the seeds planted by all ages spiritually reading the Good News of Jesus Christ.

5|15 Celebration of Last Year